

February/March 2020
Mead Hall
Episcopal School

The Art Apprentice

Newsletter

See whats happening
in the Art Studio
on the Aiken Prep
Campus

- Collaged Paintings
- Pen and Ink
- 6th Grade Cartoon
- After School Art

Anna Ewers

Taylor Baisch

Collaged Paintings

A Collaged Painting is created from an array of textures. Any thing can be used such as images, fabrics, papers, pen and paint.

Wyatt Geitner

Olivia Cato

Caroline Wiedenman

Stern Massie

Graysie Sarmiento

Pen & Ink

Students were asked to create a self portrait of their inner self. They were also instructed to use patterns instead of colors for their contrasting elements.

Jing Liu

Meredith Windham

Wyatt Geitner

Chuck Stanley

Raegan Houck

Erin Grandy

Graysie Sarmiento

Seventh Grade

Studying Illustrators, such as
-Alice Feagan
-Eric Carle
& John Klassen.
Each student picked a work to study and investigate.
This develops new techniques to experiment with.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade cartoon and animation class are busy completing their comic books. Once completed they will create a claymation film using story boards created from comic characters they developed.

March After School Art Classes on the Aiken Prep Campus Drawing and Painting Landscapes

The After-School Art Classes will resume on Wednesdays after school at 3:30 till 4:30 pm. It will start on March 4 and continue on every Wednesday in March (11,18 & 25).

This is a monthly program and be an extension of Ms. Nowlin's art classes at the end of the day. This will be a good time to learn new techniques through monthly projects.

This afterschool program is open to students from ages 6 to 18 or even adults if they would like to get involved in learning more about studio art.

Come join us in the After-School Art Classes.

$60.00 (4 classes)

$15.00 per class

includes all supplies

for info; knowlin@meadhallschool.org