Mead Hall's new Athletics Director - Mr. Antonio Grant

"One of the CSRA's most experienced basketball professionals"

Mr. Antonio Grant has enjoyed a celebrated career as a professional basketball player. He is a graduate of both New Hampton Preparatory School, and of the University of South Carolina (Columbia) where he earned his Bachelor's Degree in business management.

Mr. Grant competed in the SEC where his teams were the 1997 SEC champions and two-time NCAA tournament invitees. He was selected to the All-SEC Freshman Team and was awarded the Team MVP during his Senior Year.

Mr. Grant played in the NBA's Developmental League for the North Charleston Low Gators in 2001-02, earning the regular season championship. His professional career has taken him across teams both in Europe and the Middle East from 2002 through 2010, and you may read more about his many accolades by clicking the link here to a recent media article.

Mr. Grant has returned to his home town of North Augusta with his wife and their three children, successfully pursuing the business management of basketball camps which have leveraged his acumen in leadership and development, alongside his unquestionable skills in the motivation and mentoring of young athletes.

We extend our welcome to Mr. Grant and his family, looking forward to his arrival at school from August 1. Mr. Grant will be based on our Middle and Upper school campus.

Click here for 'South Carolina Gamecocks vs Cincinnati Bearcats 1998' to see Mr. Grant as the 'Buzzer Beater'

Antonio Grant, Mead Hall's new Athletics Director, brings his talents from professional basketball and combines them with his skills in the motivation and mentoring of young athletes.